PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a warrant.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following conditions of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

1	Standard Condition # 1: The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.
---	---

Supporting Evidence: The offender is considered to be in violation of his period of supervised release by committing the offense of assault in the second degree, on or prior to May 19, 2018.

On January 24, 2017, the offender signed his Judgement in a Criminal Case indicating he understood he could not commit any additional federal, state, or local crime.

On May 19, 2018, the offender was arrested by officers after committing an assault. The offender was booked into the Adams County Jail under case number 18-1-001767.

On May 21, 2018, the offender posted bond and was released from custody. The offender's next court date is unknown at this time.

On June 1, 2018, staff at the Adams County Jail called the probation office and advised of the offender's arrest and release. The offender had been booked under a different name and it was not until his fingerprint information had been returned that his true identity was known. Attempts have been made to contact the offender by phone but contact has not been established.

Standard Condition # 16: If the defendant is arrested or has any official contact with a law enforcement officer in a civil or criminal investigative capacity, the defendant must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.

Supporting Evidence: The offender is considered to be in violation of his period of supervised release by failing to report law enforcement contact within 72 hours.

On January 24, 2017, the offender signed his Judgement in a Criminal Case indicating he understood he must report all contact with law enforcement within 72 hours.

On May 19, 2018, the offender was arrested by officers with the Othello Police Department. The offender was released from custody on May 21, 2018. To date, the offender has not advised of law enforcement contact.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a warrant requiring the defendant to appear to answer to the allegations contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on: 6/4/2018
